This catalog is neither a contract nor an offer to contract.

When describing programs offered at Ferris State University in this catalog, the intent is to provide information on the type of career possibilities to which a curriculum may lead. In no way is this intended to imply a guarantee of job openings at a particular time for a particular student.

Enrollment in some courses may be limited to majors or require written permission of the professor, program director, department head and/or dean.

Curriculum and Other Changes

Notice: Every effort has been made to include in this publication, information that, at the time of preparation for printing, is accurate. However, the contents of this publication are not to be regarded as a contract between students or potential students at FSU. The University reserves the right to change at any time and without prior notice any provision or requirement including, but not limited to, policies, procedure, tuition, fees, academic programs, or any other activity or matter.

Reporting Discrimination

State and federal laws prohibit discrimination against individuals with disabilities, including students or applicants with disabilities. Ferris State University's Office of Affirmative Action coordinates the University's compliance with these state and federal non-discrimination laws, including the federal Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the federal Americans with Disabilities Act and the amended state Persons with Disabilities Civil Rights Act. The Office of Affirmative Action is also the designated grievance office for complaints or concerns regarding the University, its programs, procedures or employees. If you believe that a violation or potential violation of these state or federal non-discrimination laws has occurred, is occurring or will occur, please notify the Office of Affirmative Action, McKessy House, Ferris State University, 120 East Cedar Street, Big Rapids, MI 49307-2202. Telephone: 231-591-2152.
