Don,

I'm not sure what past practice has been regarding honors sections of existing courses, but I really don't see a problem with allowing those sections to keep the same gen ed status as the normal course without subjection to further review.

If you're in agreement, then I suppose the honors sections should be listed separately on the gen ed course lists because that is the practice we began this summer.

If you're OK with that, Mo can have PHIH 216 Honors Introduction to Ethics and THTH 215 Honors Introduction to Theater added at the appropriate places on the website list and the matrix list.

Thanks,
Fred

Subject Honors courses Sp 2010

Reinhold,

I am submitting three honors courses for Spring 2010. Two courses, THTH 215 and PHIH 216, are simply honors sections of existing courses. The third course, HUMH 390, is an experimental course proposed by Randy Groves.

Signed hard-copies are on their way over to the dean's office, and I have copied Fred Heck (as a courtesy for THTH and PHIH, and to review HUMH 390 for C and G). I apologize for the relative lateness of these proposals, despite my strong encouragement last spring for any new courses. I hope we are able to get the HUMH 390 on the books in time to serve the students in the honors program.

Please let me know if you have any concerns or questions.

Grant
