★★ FERRIS STATE HOCKEY ON AN INTERNATIONAL SCALE ★★

Andy Roach, a former two-time All-American at Ferris State and a two-time (2004-05) World Cup of Hockey participant, played an integral role as a member of the United States of America (USA) Hockey Team for the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons.

Roach made his National League Hockey (NHL) debut in 2005-06 with the St. Louis Blues after participating in the 2005 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Orientation Camp in early September at Colorado Springs, Colo. A native of Mattawan, Mich., Roach totaled three points (all assists) in seven outings at the 2005 International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) Men's World Championships.

For the 2004-05 season, Roach skated for Lausanne HC of the Swiss National League. He spent the previous five seasons in the German Elite League, including the last four (2000-04) with Adler Mannheim.

In the 2004 IIHF World Championships at Prague, Czech Republic, Roach guided the United States Men's National Team to the bronze medal with the game-winning goal in a 1-0 shootout victory over Slovakia. He also held the distinction of being the lone player on the 2004 USA roster for the World Cup of Hockey with no NHL-playing experience.

A two-time (1995-96 and 1996-97) second-team All-America selection by the American Hockey Coaches Association (AHCA) at Ferris State, Roach played for the Bulldogs from 1993-97. He compiled 129 career points with 42 goals and 87 assists in 138 games. The defenseman ranked 17th among the Bulldogs' all-time leaders in scoring and 14th in assists prior to this season. The two-time (1995-97) All-Central Collegiate Hockey Association (CCHA) First-Team honoree, is presently the top goal scorer among the program's all-time defensemen and is second in career points.

Following his collegiate career at Ferris State, Roach played three seasons in the International Hockey League (IHL) with three different teams – San Antonio Dragons (1997-98), Long Beach Ice Dogs (1998-99), and Utah Grizzlies (1998-99) before venturing overseas to play for Krefeld Pinguine in the German Elite League.

The BlueLine Club welcomes and encourages all individuals who are interested in promoting and assisting the Division I Men's Ice Hockey program at Ferris State University to join our organization. By joining the FSU BlueLine Club, you can show your support for the Bulldogs on the ice.
