Chargers turn 19-point first-half deficit into 68-60 victory over Saginaw Valley

Box score

Jan. 4, 2007- Playing without its floor general, the Hillsdale College men's basketball team overcame a shorthanded lineup and slow start to post one of its most satisfying wins of the season Thursday night.

Despite not having the services of senior guard Drew Powell and trailing by as many as 19 in the first half, the Chargers clawed back to earn a 68-60 victory over the Cardinals in Saginaw. Hillsdale improved to 11-2 overall and 3-1 in the GLIAC with the victory, while SVSU fell to 4-7 overall and 2-3 in the GLIAC.

The Cardinals took advantage of Powell's absence from the lineup early, and raced out to a 31-12 lead on the Chargers in the opening 12 minutes of the game. But Hillsdale counterpunched, and finished the first half on an 11-2 run to close the deficit to 10 at halftime, 33-23.

Almost immediately, that lead was whittled to four in the opening moments of the second half, as Hillsdale turned up its pressure on defense. The team did an excellent job of forcing turnovers and disrupting SVSU's offensive sets, while exploiting mismatches on the other end of the floor.

Saginaw Valley got into foul trouble early in the second half, particularly with its front court players, and Hillsdale seized the opportunity. The Chargers' first lead came by a 39-38 score, and Hillsdale pulled away from there.

Helping to lead the defensive stand was sophomore Travis Worst, who recorded a team-high four steals and was instrumental in the team's overall defensive play which helped turn the game around in Hillsdale's favor.

On offense, Tony Gugino (17 points) and Andrew Taylor (12 points) were able to score on the inside when the Cardinal big men had to sit out because of foul trouble. Guard Evan Steward (13 points, three assists, three steals) also played a big part in the game, using his quickness to get the Chargers easy baskets in transition. Worst added 10 points in the win.

Hillsdale's 11 wins this season are just one shy of last year's total for the entire season. The team has won three straight since losing to the defending Division II national champions in the Bahamas. The Chargers play at Ferris State University at 3 p.m. Saturday.
