

BULLDOG STAFF/FAMILY

DAVE SCHLUMP
Volunteer
Assistant Coach

Dave Schlump enters his fifth season as a volunteer assistant coach at Ferris following a successful prep coaching career in West Michigan.

The 49-year old Schlump assists with the Bulldogs' on-court instruction and skill development.

A Ferris State alumnus, Schlump currently serves as an alternative education principal for the Cedar Springs (Mich.) Public School district. He served as the Red Hawks' varsity boys basketball coach for 13 seasons and led CSHS to a 22-1 overall record and the program's fifth district crown in the six seasons during the 2003-04 campaign. Schlump also directed the Red Hawks to both their first unbeaten regular season along with first conference title (OK White) since 1977 in his final season.

While at Cedar Springs, Schlump guided the Red Hawks to five district championships along with one regional crown. His 2002-03 squad, which included former Bulldog basketball players Tyler Wolfe, Josh Schlump and Adam Veltkamp, posted an 18-7 mark and reached the regional finals.

Schlump, who was named the Grand Rapids Press Coach of the Year in 2003-04, previously spent four seasons as the boys basketball coach at Kent City (Mich.) High School. He also coached football for three years at Kent City where one of his players included current FSU assistant coach Cory Anderson.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, Schlump participated in football, basketball and baseball during his prep career at Ida (Mich.) High School. He earned a degree in social work from FSU in 1982 after graduating from IHS in 1977.

Schlump presently resides in Cedar Springs along with his wife, Teresea, and children Josh, Elyse and Dan.

His son, Josh, is presently pursuing a degree in Professional Golf Management at Ferris State and was a member of the 2005-06 Bulldog men's basketball squad. Elyse is currently playing collegiate hoops this season at Concordia (Mich.) after one year at GLIAC-member Tiffin.

THE BULLDOG BASKETBALL FAMILY

The Bulldog Family ...

Pictured on top is head coach Bill Sall and his family, including wife Karen, four-year old daughter Delaney and triplets Quentin, Hannah and Lydia (born 3/9/05).

Assistant Coach Cory Anderson along with his wife, Robyn, and son, Cas (born 9/10/07) are shown in the bottom photo.

ANDY BRONKEMA
Volunteer
Assistant Coach

Former collegiate basketball standout Andy Bronkema embarks on his second season as a volunteer assistant coach at FSU.

The 24-year old Bronkema currently teaches at the Crossroads Charter Academy in Big Rapids, Mich.

He concluded his collegiate playing career in 2007 as a two-time All-America Honorable Mention selection while playing for Cornerstone University at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Division II level in Grand Rapids, Mich.

The son of Joel and Lori Bronkema, Bronkema was a three-sport athlete on the prep level at McBain High School. He earned all-state honors in basketball along with All-Highland Conference kudos in both football and basketball.

Bronkema helped the Ramblers to a state hoops title in 2002 and a state football runner-up effort in 2001. He also played baseball.

In 2006, he served as the running backs coach with the Grand Rapids Community College football team.

Bronkema, who graduated from Cornerstone in 2007 with a degree in education, is married to the former Jenae Mikolon. The couple resides in Big Rapids.

MEN'S BASKETBALL SUPPORT STAFF

JOE FOX
Asst. Athletics Trainer, ATC

ROB BENTLEY
Athletics Communications

