

BULLDOG STAFF/COACHING HISTORY

DAVE SCHLUMP Volunteer Assistant Coach

Dave Schlump enters his second season as a volunteer assistant coach at Ferris State following a successful prep coaching career in West Michigan.

The 46-year old

Schlump will assist with the Bulldogs' on-court instruction and skill development.

A Ferris State alumnus, Schlump currently serves as an alternative education principal for the Cedar Springs (Mich.) Public School district. He served as the Red Hawks' varsity boys basketball coach for 13 seasons and led CSHS to a 22-1 overall record and the program's fifth district crown in the last six seasons during the 2003-04 campaign. Schlump also directed the Red Hawks to both their first unbeaten regular season along with first conference title (OK White) since 1977 in his final season.

While at Cedar Springs, Schlump guided the Red Hawks to five district championships along with one regional crown. His 2002-03 squad, which included former Bulldog basketball players Tyler Wolfe and Adam Veltkamp, compiled an 18-7 overall mark and reached the regional finals.

Schlump, who was named the Grand Rapids Press Coach of the Year in 2003-04, previously spent four seasons as the boys basketball coach at Kent City (Mich.) High School. He also coached football for three years at Kent City where one of his players included current FSU assistant coach Cory Anderson.

A native of Toledo, Ohio, Schlump participated in football, basketball and baseball during his prep career at Ida (Mich.) High School. He earned a degree in social work from FSU in 1982 after graduating from IHS in 1977.

Schlump presently resides in Cedar Springs along with his wife, Teresea, and children Josh (19), Elyse (16) and Dan (10). His son, Josh, is presently pursuing a degree in Professional Golf Management at Ferris State and is a member of this season's squad.

MEN'S BASKETBALL SUPPORT STAFF

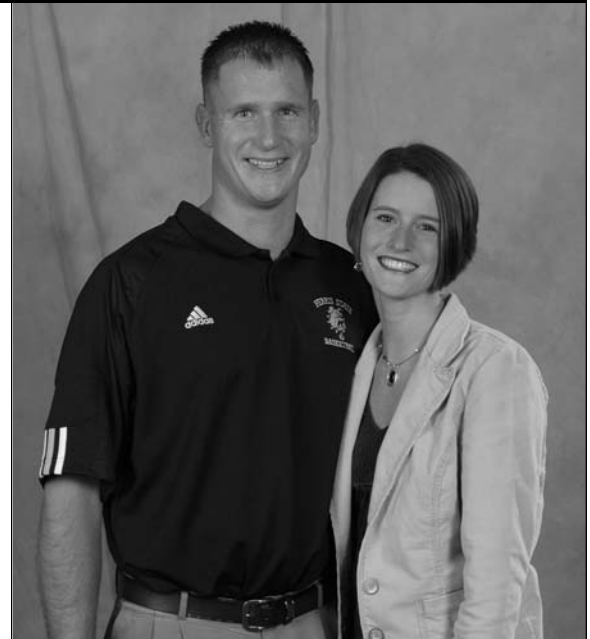

MICHAEL BLACKBURN
Asst. Trainer, ATC

ROB BENTLEY
Athletics Communications

THE BULLDOG BASKETBALL FAMILY

The Bulldog Family ...

Pictured left are Ferris State men's basketball head coach Bill Sall and his family, including wife Karen, three-year old daughter Delaney and triplets Quentin, Hannah and Lydia (born 3/9/05).

Full-time Assistant Coach Cory Anderson and his wife, Robyn, are shown above. The couple was married in July 2005.

