CAMP DIRECTOR-BILL SALL

Coach Sall is entering his eighth year as a head coach at Ferris State University. He previously held assistant coaching positions at Calvin College (1992-1995), Ferris State University (1995-1998) and Hillsdale College (1998-2002) prior to being named Ferris State University's 11th head coach. Bill Sall has been a part of eight league championships and nine NCAA tournament appearances as a player and a coach. Before joining the coaching ranks he was a standout player at Calvin College, being named to the NABC Division III all American team twice. He has over 16 years experience as a camp coordinator and director.

CAMP COORDINATOR-CORY ANDERSON

Coach Anderson is entering his 11th year as an assistant coach at Ferris State University. He started his college career as a student athlete at Calvin College, before transferring to Ferris State for his final two seasons. He was instrumental in the rebuilding process leading the Bulldogs from the bottom of the GLIAC to back to back league championships and NCAA tournament bid. Coach Anderson was captain of the 1997-98 championship team. He has over 10 years experience as a camp coordinator and director with emphasis on offensive fundamentals and team defense.

SESSION #1: GRADES 3-8 (9AM-12PM)

The primary focus of this camp is the development of the basic fundamentals of the game. Campers will receive instruction that has been tailored to their level of expertise. The goal of this camp is to encourage their interest in basketball in an environment full of fun, challenges and education. Also will have plenty of games and competitive events.
