In 1997, he was selected as the Mississippi Valley Conference Coach-of-the-Year after guiding the Little Hawks to a conference championship. Brown compiled a 39-45 record during his four years as head coach.

"Brent brings a lot to Ferris State," said fourth-year head coach Tracey Fisk. "He possesses a lot of coaching experience, especially coaching women, which makes him a tremendous asset to our program.

"Brent's knowledge and maturity also adds a great deal to our program and our similar coaching philosophies allow us to work well together," added Fisk.

Brown played four years of collegiate basketball at Simpson College in Indianola, Iowa, where he earned a bachelor's degree in accounting in 1989. The 34-year-old also received a master's degree in athletic administration from the University of Iowa in 1994 after serving two years as a graduate assistant in the athletics department.
