JUSTIN REES ASSISTANT COACH (BARRY, 1997)

Justin Rees is in his first season as Ferris State's assistant women's basketball coach.

The 26-year old Rees, who served as an assistant coach for the past three seasons (1999-2002) at NCAA Division II Teikyo Post in Waterbury, Conn., assists with the program's administrative, coaching and recruiting responsibilities. He replaced Brent Brown, who previously accepted an assistant coaching position at NCAA-I Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI) following the 2001-02 campaign.

In addition to his coaching duties at Teikyo Post, Rees also was the school's equipment manager. The Eagles concluded the 2001-02 campaign with an 8-18 mark under third-year head coach Paul Ebbs after finishing the 2000-01 season at 13-14 overall and a earning a Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference playoff berth.

Prior to his appointment at Teikyo Post, Rees worked in the broadcast industry. From 1997-1999, he was the producer and co-host of "Champions of Talk," a locally-syndicated radio talk show in Melbourne, Fla. Rees also worked as a board operator and public service announcement director at WMEL-Radio in Melbourne from 1997 to 1998. He was a broadcast technician and studio camera operator at WTNH-TV in New Haven, Conn., from March to October 2000.

The 6-8 Rees was a four-year letterwinner at Barry University in Miami Shores, Fla., where he competed in men's basketball from 1993-1997. While at Barry, Rees compiled 312 points and 248 rebounds while starting 15 games in 102 career appearances. He graduated from Barry in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in broadcast communications. The Buccaneers were 68-41 overall during his playing career and posted a school-best 9-5 Sunshine State Conference mark in 1996-97.

As a prepster, Rees was a two-time (1991-1993) team Most Valuable Player Award winner at Major Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Fla. Rees, a two-year (1991-93) team captain, earned all-district and all-state honorable mention accolades as a senior while garnering county all-star honors under head coach Scott Cromwell. He led the Eagles in both field goal percentage and rebounds three consecutive seasons and was named to the 1992 Kreul Classic All-Tournament Team, which featured some of the top high school players in the country.

A 1993 Major Stoneman Douglas graduate, Rees is the son of Don and Robyn Rees of Palm Bay, Fla., and has one brother, Alan (31).
