Ferris Garners League Laurels

Ferris State has had 24 student-athletes receive All-GLIAC accolades since 1979, including 13 first-team picks.

During the 2005-06 campaign, junior Erin Miller (Niles, Mich.) garnered GLIAC North Division First-Team accolades for the second time in her career while junior Kristin Reinhart (East Lansing) was a second-team choice for the second consecutive campaign.

In the 2000-01 campaign, FSU senior Tianna Kirkland (Flint, Mich./Kearsley) was named the GLIAC Player of the Year in conjunction with the all-conference balloting by the league's head coaches. Kirkland, who currently is midst her first season as an assistant women's basketball coach at NCAA Division I Eastern Michigan following two years in the same capacity at Butler, led the conference in rebounding (10.1 rpg) and registered a league-leading 13 double-double performances (points and rebounds) as a senior.

Ferris State head coach Tracey Bloodworth-Fisk claimed 2003-04 GLIAC Coach of the Year kudos after guiding the Bulldogs to a 21-10 overall record and the program's second-ever NCAA Division II Great Lakes Regional Tournament appearance. Ferris also placed second in the league's North Division with a 14-4 conference mark in 2003-04.
