2009 Women's Basketball Camps

Camp Staff

Tracey Dorow

FSU Head Women's Basketball Coach

Coach Dorow is completing her 11th season as head women's basketball coach. Her many accomplishments include nine consecutive GLIAC Tournament bids and three NCAA Division II National Tournament appearances. She currently stands as Ferris State University's women's basketball coach with the most wins. Under Dorow's leadership, the Bulldogs have ranked among the nation's top Division II academic programs seven of the last nine seasons, including the highest GPA in 1999-2000 and the second highest in 2002-2003.

Dorow was a two-time all-state and academic all-state selection at St. Joseph (Mich.) High School. She was also named to the Class B All-Decade team in 1989 and finished third in Michigan's "Miss Basketball" voting. Dorow played collegiate ball at Division I Illinois State University (1990-92) and at Division II Northern Michigan University (1993-94). Prior to landing the head coaching position at Ferris, Dorow quickly moved up the coaching ranks as an assistant coach for Lake Michigan College for three years and one year as a graduate assistant coach for the University of Indianapolis.

Crystal Harris

Crystal Harris, Camp Director

FSU Assistant Women's Basketball Coach

Coach Harris is serving her second year as assistant coach of the Bulldogs and brings a wealth of successful playing experience. As a graduate of the University of California-Riverside, Harris was a three-time All-Big West Conference honoree for the Division I Highlanders where she is on the school's all-time leaders list in more than 16 statistical categories. Harris brings professional playing experience from the San Diego Siege of the National Women's Basketball League as well as playing internationally in Switzerland and Denmark. Harris has tallied more than 1,000 career points at both the collegiate and high school levels.

Coaches Dorow and Harris will be joined by their collegiate players and other area coaches.
