Winona's Samp, Grand Valley's Marshall Headline 2004 Football Gazette All-Northwest Region Team

WINONA, Minn. — Winona State University wide receiver Chris Samp and Grand Valley State University defensive lineman Keyonta Marshall each earned first-team all-region honors for a third consecutive year, highlighting a talented 2004 All-Northwest Region Team selected by Don Hansen's Football Gazette.

This marks the third year Football Gazette has selected NCAA Division II All-Region Teams. The national publication has selected NCAA Division II All-America teams since 1988.

The first-team and second-team All-Region selections advance to a national ballot from which the 2004 NCAA Division II Football Gazette All-America team will be selected in early January.

Samp, a senior from Algoma, Wis., led Winona State to a third straight Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference title and consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division II playoffs in 2003-04. The Harlon Hill Trophy finalist caught 78 passes for nearly 1,6000 yards and 22 touchdowns this fall.

Marshall, a senior from Saginaw, Mich., captured the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year honors each of the last three years. He helped Guide the Lakers to back-to-back NCAA Division II National Championships in 2002-03, before GVSU fell in the NCAA-II quarterfinals in 2004.

Grand Valley State was eliminated from post-season play by the University of North Dakota, which placed 10 players on the All-Region lists. The Fighting Sioux had four players earn first-team honors, with two second-team honorees and four third-team recipients.

A total of 76 players earned some form of Football Gazette All-Northwest Region honors. Players from 24 of the 37 football-playing schools in the Northwest Region earned All-Northwest Region accolades.
