2006 D2Football.com All-American Team

National Champion Grand Valley leads the way with seven selections on the D2Football.com All-American Team. Highlighting the five, first-team selections are senior quarterback Cullen Finnerty and senior defensive end Michael McFadden. National runners-up Northwest Missouri had seven selections as well, with three first-team selections on defense.

Other first-team selections include Harlon Hill winner Danny Woodhead, Division 2's all-time leading rusher Germaine Race, NFL Combine invitee Allen Barbre, and Dan Peters, the second leading pass interceptor in Division 2 history.

The D2Football.com All-American team was chosen by the staff of D2Football.com with the input of coaches, sports information directors, and members of the media. The team is comprised of the 100 best players in D2 for 2006.
