Senior middle linebacker Mike Klobucher has been the Bulldogs' top tackler the past two seasons, collecting 134 stops in 2004 and 104 in '05. The 2006 preseason All-America candidate not only was a repeat honorable mention All-GLIAC selection last fall, but was named both the Bulldogs' MVP and Most Valuable Defensive Skill Player.

Sophomore Jeff Hollandsworth enters fall camp vying for starting duties at outside linebacker. An academic All-GLIAC choice in 2005, the 6-0, 225-pound started in the team's final 10 contests last season and racked up 91 tackles to finish third among the team's leaders en route to achieving FSU Most Improved Defensive Player Award recognition.
