NATIONAL GOLF COACHES ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES
2006-2007 ALL-AMERICAN SCHOLAR RECIPIENTS

CORAL SPRINGS, Florida (July 9, 2007) – The National Golf Coaches Association All-American Scholar Teams for Division I, II & III were announced today with a total of 368 women’s collegiate golfers recognized with this prestigious honor. The criteria for selection to the All-American Scholar Team are some of the most stringent of all college athletics. The minimum cumulative GPA is 3.50 and student-athletes must have competed in at least 50% (Division I) or 66% (Division II & III) of the college’s regularly scheduled competitive rounds during the year.

The 2006-2007 NGCA All-American Scholar Team for Division I is as follows:

About the National Golf Coaches Association

The National Golf Coaches Association, founded in 1983, is a non-profit organization representing women's collegiate golf coaches. The NGCA was formed to encourage the playing of college golf for women in correlation with a general objective of education and in accordance with the highest tradition of intercollegiate competition. Today, the NGCA represents over 400 coaches throughout the U.S. and is dedicated to educating, promoting and recognizing both its members and the student-athletes they represent.
