FERRIS MEN'S TENNIS RECEIVES NCAA-II NATIONAL TOURNEY BID*Bulldog Men's Team To Hit Road For Regional Play*

The Ferris State University men's tennis team has been selected to participate in the 2008 NCAA Division II Championships. The 64 selected teams along with the 16 first and second-round regional sites were announced late last week by the NCAA-II Men's and Women's Tennis Committee.

Each of the following eight regions will conduct two first and second-round regional tournaments: East, Mid-Atlantic, Southeast, South, Great Lakes, Central, North Central and West. Both the Northwood and Drury (Mo.) men's teams were selected to host Great Lakes Regional play. Sixteen men's and women's regional tournaments will be held with the winner of each advancing into the 16-team single-elimination national championship field slated for May 14-17 in Houston, Texas.

The Bulldog men's tennis team will compete in one of two NCAA-II Great Lakes Regional Tournaments this Thursday and Friday, May 8-9, at Northwood University in Midland, Mich. FSU will square off against West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC) opponent West Virginia Wesleyan on Thursday (May 8) at 3 p.m. (EDT). The other first-round match in the Northwood regional pits Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) member Rockhurst (Mo.) against the host Timberwolves starting at 1 p.m. (EDT) with the winners slated to meet Friday (May 9) in the final at 12 p.m. (EDT).

All matches in the Northwood regional are slated to be held outside on-campus at NU's Gerstacker Tennis Center. The Midland Community Tennis Center will be used in the event of rain or inclement weather.

The selections of teams for the championship was based on prescribed criteria listed in the NCAA-II Men's and Women's Tennis Championships Handbook and approved by the NCAA-II Championships Committee.

The Ferris State men's team, presently 10-10 overall, will be making its 11th consecutive and 14th overall NCAA-II Regional Tournament appearance. Last season (2007), FSU defeated Grand Valley State 5-3 in the regional first round (5/3) before falling to host Northwood in the regional final (5/4) for the second-straight year at Midland, Mich. Ferris claimed its sixth consecutive regional title and ninth overall berth in the national finals round three years ago (2005) where FSU fell to West Florida (5/11) by a 5-1 count in the round of 16 at Altamonte Springs, Fla.

Ferris State placed fourth overall at the 2008 Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) Men's Tennis Tournament under first-year head coach Alex Palladino two weeks ago (April 19-20) at the Midland Community Tennis Center.

Five Ferris State University men's tennis players received All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) recognition for the 2007-08 campaign in an announcement made this week by the league office. The awards were presented in conjunction with the league's annual postseason tournament held last Saturday and Sunday (April 19-20) at the Midland (Mich.) Community Tennis Center.

Junior Lewis DeGeneault (Eugene, Ore./Sheldon) earned All-GLIAC First Team honors while senior Akshay Chellappa (Mumbai, India) and sophomore Ahmet Kursad-Demir (Samsun, Turkey/Namik Kemal Lisesi) received second-team kudos. Additionally, FSU seniors Bryan Karazia (Livonia, Mich./Birmingham Brother Rice) and Kevin Brundle (Grand Blanc) were chosen as honorable mention selections.

Northwood's Peter Kazianschuetz claimed GLIAC Player of the Year laurels, Tim Hansson of Mercyhurst earned GLIAC Freshman of the Year honors and Northwood's Zane Colestock garnered GLIAC Coach of the Year recognition.

The league's eight head coaches participated in the balloting process. Nine student-athletes were named to both the first and second-team squads while seven others tallied honorable mention laurels.

DeGeneault to date has recorded a 8-9 overall singles record this campaign and won four of his six league regular-season singles encounters at the number one flight. In doubles play, he owns a 8-10 cumulative record this season, including a 6-5 record at the second spot in the lineup. He's presently ranked sixth in singles and ninth in doubles play, according to the latest (March 31) NCAA Division II Great Lakes Regional Rankings issued by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA). The 5-8 DeGeneault presently holds career records of 352-5 (singles) and 20-19 (doubles) during his Bulldog career.

The 5-7 Chellappa, who's currently ranked ninth in the Division II Great Lakes Regional Singles Rankings, has posted a 11-6 overall singles mark to date this campaign. In addition, he's also presently recorded a 7-11 doubles ledger in his second Bulldog season this year. Chellappa and senior Corey Banghart (Hinsdale, Ill./Central) are ranked ninth regionally in doubles play. Chellappa won three of his five GLIAC singles matches and finished with a 4-2 league regular-season doubles record this year.

Kursad-Demir has tallied a 11-7 singles record and a 9-7 mark in doubles competition to date this campaign. In his first year with the Bulldogs, Kursad-Demir has emerged victorious in eight of his 10 singles encounters at the third spot in the Bulldog lineup. He was a perfect 7-0 in GLIAC singles action and teamed with DeGeneault to record a 5-1 league doubles record at the second flight.

Karazia is currently 7-10 overall in singles play along with 1-

3 in doubles action during the 2007-08 season. The 5-7 Karazia previously compiled 11-10 singles and 13-10 doubles records for the Bulldogs in 2005-06 before moving up to the second spot in the lineup last season. Karazia did not play a conference doubles match this season, but was 5-2 in GLIAC singles action.

Finally, the 5-11 Brundle presently is 11-6 in singles competition and holds a 12-9 doubles record this year. One of five seniors on the Bulldog roster, Brundle owns career marks of 30-21 (singles) and 39-26 (doubles) at Ferris State. Brundle was 5-1 in GLIAC singles play and teamed with fellow senior Jeremiah DeJose (Detroit, Mich./Ortonville-Brandon) to record a team-leading 6-1 conference doubles record this campaign. The duo presently holds a four-match winning streak and has won seven of their last eight decisions.

Ferris State, which is ranked third in the latest Division II Great Lakes Regional Rankings, placed fourth overall at the GLIAC Tournament this season under first-year head coach Alex Palladino. The Bulldogs, who are presently 10-10 overall this season, hope to receive a bid to compete in the NCAA Division II Championships slated to be held May 8-10 at campus sites when the official announcement is made next week.

The Bulldog men's tennis team made its 13th all-time tournament bid during the 2006-07 season.

The Ferris State University Athletics Department appointed Alex Palladino as the school's head men's and women's tennis coach prior to the 2007-08 campaign.

A United States Professional Tennis Association (USPTA) Certified Tennis Professional, Palladino has worked as a tennis instructor in West Michigan for the last 20 years since his collegiate playing career ended in 1987. As part of a reorganization plan, he took over both the men's and women's tennis coaching positions in a joint role.

"Alex is well-known across West Michigan and throughout the Midwest in the tennis industry," Kirinovic said. "We are extremely lucky to bring someone with his tennis knowledge and ability to our university.

"Personally, he was an NCAA champion and understands the work that is necessary to prepare oneself to reach those heights," added Kirinovic. "He also understands how to teach the skills needed to improve the level of play on our teams. With all this being said, I am happy to have Alex leading our tennis programs."

Palladino, who competed at the NCAA Division III level for Kalamazoo College from 1984-87, led the Hornets to back-to-back NCAA-III National Championships his final two years under head coach George Acker. He captured NCAA-III national titles in doubles play while teaming with Jim Burda as both a junior and senior. Twice, he reached the NCAA-III championship match as a singles player at Kalamazoo.

While at Kalamazoo College, Palladino earned four varsity letters and also claimed the school's Most Accomplished Athlete Award as a senior. He competed at both the top singles and doubles flights as a collegian. In addition, Palladino was a four-time All-Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) selection and named league MVP his final campaign.

Since finishing his collegiate career, Palladino has served in a variety of tennis roles. He spent two years as a teaching professional in Chicago and five years at the East Hills club in Grand Rapids. In 1986, Palladino became the Director of Tennis at the Michigan Athletic Club in Grand Rapids where he worked until 2001 when he moved into a similar role with the Champion Health and Fitness Club in Rockford. He's also worked as the tennis director at the Kent Country Club in Grand Rapids.

"I'm extremely excited about the future and the opportunities presented here to build our program at Ferris State University," said Palladino.

As a professional player, Palladino has won the adult men's Midwest Indoor Championship seven times, traveled on the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP) Satellite Circuit and earned victories over players ranked as high as #145 in the world. He has twice been honored as the United States Professional Tennis Association's (USPTA) Midwest Player of the Year and been recognized as the West Michigan Adult Player of the Year several times.

Palladino began playing competitive tennis at the age of 11 in Kalamazoo and entered his first tournament one year later. He qualified for the Midwest sectionals as a 15-year old and advanced to the USTA Junior Nationals when he was only 16 years old. He was twice ranked in the Midwest section's top five players and finished among the top 24 players nationally prior to his collegiate career.

A 1984 graduate of Kalamazoo Central High School, Palladino was an all-state player and team Most Valuable Player Award recipient during his prep playing career. The three-year letterwinner placed among the top eight finishers at the state meet his junior campaign for the Maroon Giants. He graduated from high school a semester early to enroll and play that spring at Kalamazoo where he advanced to the NCAA-III singles national championship match as a 17-year old freshman.

Palladino continues to play men's "open" events and has recent wins over top graduating players from both Michigan State and Western Michigan University.

Besides playing tennis, Palladino's hobbies also include playing the guitar and creating stained glass windows. He graduated from Kalamazoo with a bachelor's degree in mathematics and art in 1987.

Palladino is married to the former Mona Bidwell. He has a son, Jordan, and two daughters, Bailey and Leah.
