TEAM INFORMATION

FERRIS MEN'S TENNIS RECEIVES NCAA-II NATIONAL TOURNEY BID*Bulldog Men's Team To Hit Road For Regional Play*

The Ferris State University men's tennis team has been selected to participate in the 2009 NCAA Division II Championships. The 64 selected teams along with the 16 first and second-round regional sites were announced Wednesday (April 29) by the NCAA-II Men's and Women's Tennis Committee.

Each of the following eight regions will conduct two regional preliminary-round tournaments: Atlantic, Central, East, Midwest, South, South Central, Southeast and West. Both the Northwood and Rockhurst (Mo.) men's teams were selected to host Midwest Regional play. Sixteen men's and women's regional preliminary-round tournaments will be held with the winner of each advancing into the 16-team single-elimination national championship field (sweet sixteen) slated for May 13-16 at Sanlando Park in Altamonte Springs, Fla.

The Bulldog men's tennis team will compete in one of two NCAA-II Midwest Regional Tournaments next Thursday and Friday, May 7-8, at Northwood University in Midland, Mich. FSU will square off against West Michigan rival Grand Valley State on Thursday (May 7) at 9 a.m. (EDT). The other first-round match in the Northwood regional pits the host Timberwolves versus fellow Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) member Michigan Tech starting at 11 a.m. (EDT) with the winners slated to meet Friday (May 8) in the final at 10 a.m. (EDT).

All matches in the Northwood regional are slated to be held outside on-campus at NU's Gerstacker Tennis Center. The Midland Community Tennis Center will be used in the event of rain or inclement weather.

The selections of teams for the championship was based on prescribed criteria listed in the NCAA-II Men's and Women's Tennis Championships Handbook and approved by the NCAA-II Championships Committee.

The Ferris State men's team, presently 13-7 overall, will be making its 12th consecutive and 15th overall NCAA-II Regional Tournament appearance. Last season (2008), FSU fell to West Virginia Wesleyan 5-2 in the regional first round (5/8) at Midland, Mich. Ferris has advanced to the NCAA-II "Sweet Sixteen" round nine times overall in its history.

Ferris State placed third overall at the 2009 GLIAC Men's Tennis Tournament under second-year head coach Alex Palladino nearly two weeks ago (April 18-19) at the Midland Community Tennis Center.

The Bulldogs split two meetings this campaign with Grand Valley State, which currently owns a 20-8 overall record and was the league tournament runner-up. Ferris recorded a thrilling 5-4 home victory over the Lakers in the regular-season finale (April 14) at the FSU Racquet and Fitness Center in Big Rapids, but suffered a identical 5-4 setback to GVSU in the conference tournament semifinals (April 18) at Midland only four days later.

The Ferris State University Athletics Department appointed Alex Palladino as the school's head men's and women's tennis coach prior to the 2007-08 campaign.

A United States Professional Tennis Association (USPTA) Certified Tennis Professional, Palladino has worked as a tennis instructor in West Michigan for the last 20 years since his collegiate playing career ended in 1987. As part of a reorganization plan, he took over both the men's and women's tennis coaching positions in a joint role.

"Alex is well-known across West Michigan and throughout the Midwest in the tennis industry," Kirinovic said. "We are extremely lucky to bring someone with his tennis knowledge and ability to our university."

"Personally, he was an NCAA champion and understands the work that is necessary to prepare oneself to reach those heights," added Kirinovic. "He also understands how to teach the skills needed to improve the level of play on our teams. With all this being said, I am happy to have Alex leading our tennis programs."

Palladino, who competed at the NCAA Division III level for Kalamazoo College from 1984-87, led the Hornets to back-to-back NCAA-III National Championships his final two years under head coach George Acker. He captured NCAA-III national titles in doubles play while teaming with Jim Burda as both a junior and senior. Twice, he reached the NCAA-III championship match as a singles player at Kalamazoo.

While at Kalamazoo College, Palladino earned four varsity letters and also claimed the school's Most Accomplished Athlete Award as a senior. He competed at both the top singles and doubles flights as a collegian. In addition, Palladino was a four-time All-Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA) selection and named league MVP his final campaign.

Since finishing his collegiate career, Palladino has served in a variety of tennis roles. He spent two years as a teaching professional in Chicago and five years at the East Hills club in Grand Rapids. In 1986, Palladino became the Director of Tennis at the Michigan Athletic Club in Grand Rapids where he worked until 2001 when he moved into a similar role with the Champion Health and Fitness Club in Rockford. He's also worked as the tennis director at the Kent Country Club in Grand Rapids.

"I'm extremely excited about the future and the opportunities presented here to build our program at Ferris State University," said Palladino.

As a professional player, Palladino has won the adult men's Midwest Indoor Championship seven times, traveled on the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP) Satellite Circuit and earned victories over players ranked as high as #145 in the world. He has twice been honored as the United States Professional Tennis Association's (USPTA) Midwest Player of the Year and been recognized as the West Michigan Adult Player of the Year several times.

Palladino began playing competitive tennis at the age of 11 in Kalamazoo and entered his first tournament one year later. He qualified for the Midwest sectionals as a 15-year old and advanced to the USTA Junior Nationals when he was only 16 years old. He was twice ranked in the Midwest section's top five players and finished among the top 24 players nationally prior to his collegiate career.

A 1984 graduate of Kalamazoo Central High School, Palladino was an all-state player and team Most Valuable Player Award recipient during his prep playing career. The three-year letterwinner placed among the top eight finishers at the state meet his junior campaign for the Maroon Giants. He graduated from high school a semester early to enroll and play that spring at Kalamazoo where he advanced to the NCAA-III singles national championship match as a 17-year old freshman.

Palladino continues to play men's "open" events and has recent wins over top graduating players from both Michigan State and Western Michigan University.

Besides playing tennis, Palladino's hobbies also include playing the guitar and creating stained glass windows. He graduated from Kalamazoo with a bachelor's degree in mathematics and art in 1987.

Palladino is married for the former Mona Bidwell. He has a son, Jordan, and two daughters, Bailey and Leah.

FOUR FERRIS MEN'S TENNIS PLAYERS CLAIM ALL-GLIAC KUDOS

Senior Lewis DeGeneault Attains First Team Honors For Second-Straight Year

Four members of the 2008-09 Ferris State University men's tennis team earned All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) accolades. The announcement was made by the league office in conjunction with the 2009 GLIAC Men's Tennis Tournament held recently (April 18-19) at Midland, Mich.

Nine players each were named to the All-GLIAC First Team, Second Team and Honorable Mention squads in voting conducted by the league's head coaches. The coaches named Findlay rookie Kyle Collette the conference's "Freshman of the Year," while Zane Colestock, head coach of the Northwood men's tennis team, was tabbed as the "Coach of the Year".

Northwood sophomore Peter Kazianschuetz earned the GLIAC men's tennis "Player of the Year" honor for the second year in a row.

Ferris junior Ahmet Kursad-Demir earned All-GLIAC Second Team laurels for the second-straight year

Senior Lewis DeGeneault

(Eugene, Ore./Sheldon) claimed first team recognition for the second consecutive year. The 5-8 DeGeneault, who is the Bulldogs number one singles player, has recorded a 10-13 overall singles record and an 11-13 mark in doubles play to date this campaign. DeGeneault is 45-39 overall in his career during singles competition and has posted a 31-33 doubles ledger in his career. He was 4-3 in GLIAC singles action this season.

Junior Ahmet Kursad-Demir (Samsun, Turkey/Namik Kemal Lisesi) attained second team all-league recognition for the second year in a row. Demir won five of his six GLIAC singles matches at the number two flight in the lineup and is currently 17-8 overall in individual play this year. He has teamed up with DeGeneault to post a 10-12 record in doubles action this season and the duo is ranked seventh in the latest Campbell's Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Division II Midwest Doubles Rankings.

Freshman Jack Swan (Milwaukee, Wis./Arrowhead), who earned GLIAC Men's Tennis Athlete of the Week award laurels earlier this year, was also named to the All-GLIAC second team. Swan owns a current 19-6 record in singles and is 16-8 overall in doubles play during his initial collegiate campaign. He won five of his seven league singles matches at the squad's number three spot.

Finally, freshman Justin Hermes (Colorado Springs, Colo./Cheyenne Mountain) claimed honorable mention All-GLIAC recognition. The 6-0 Hermes presently is 16-8 overall in both singles and doubles matches this campaign. He posted a team-high tying 6-1 record in league singles play while splitting time between the numbers five and six positions in the lineup. Hermes has won nine of his last 10 singles encounters to date this year.

The Bulldogs are currently 13-7 overall this season after placing second in GLIAC regular-season play with a 6-1 conference mark. FSU took third place at the GLIAC Tournament under second-year head coach Alex Palladino.

Ferris, which is ranked fourth in both the NCAA and Campbell's ITA Midwest Regional Rankings, is expected to receive a berth for the NCAA Division II Tournament. Eight teams from the region will be invited to compete in the regional portion of the tournament on May 7-9 with the official draw slated to be announced this week.
