2002-03 SEASON NOTES

- ❖ First-year head coach Kevin Brandalik claimed his first collegiate coaching victory on Sept. 19, 2002, as he guided FSU to a 9-0 non-league win over Grand Valley State at the FSU Racquet and Fitness Center in Big Rapids, Mich.
- ❖ Senior Jan Talian claimed the 2002 Omni Hotels/Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Great Lakes Singles Championship on Sept. 29 at the Midland Tennis Center in Midland, Mich. Talian, a two-time (1999-2001) ITA Division II All-America singles doubles performer, also teamed up with sophomore Jason Cole to win the regional doubles crown.
- ❖ Talian and Cole placed second overall in the Division II doubles field at the 2002 Omni Hotels National Small College Championships held Oct. 17-20 at the H.E. Butts Tennis Center in Corpus Christi, Texas. The duo won their first two matches before dropping an 8-2 decision versus Southwest Baptist's Mark Eori and Andras Bori in the doubles championship match. Talian finished seventh overall in the singles field.
- ❖ The Bulldogs advanced to the NCAA Division II Regional Tournament for the sixth consecutive year and ninth time overall. Ferris has claimed the regional title and earned a bid to the NCAA-II Championships four consecutive seasons (2000-03). FSU also made its seventh appearance in the NCAA Championship round this campaign, falling to third-ranked Drury (Mo.) 5-1 in the round of 16.
- ❖ Ferris State finished second overall at the 2003 GLIAC Championships as the Bulldogs dropped a 5-1 decision versus Northwood in the title match. The Timberwolves have edged FSU in the final match four consecutive (2000-03) seasons since Ferris claimed the 1999 league title. Jan Talian was named the GLIAC Player of the Year while Francisco Valencia and Martin Hoch were also first-team all-league picks. Jason Cole was named to the All-GLIAC Second-Team. Talian was also named the ITA's Great Lakes Region Senior Player of the Year.
