The Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) was founded in June 1972. The charter members of the conference were Grand Valley State University, Lake Superior State University, Northwood University and Saginaw Valley State University.

Ferris State University followed soon afterward when they joined the conference along with Oakland University in 1972. The conference continued to expand until it reached its current number of 13 member institutions. The GLIAC's current members are—Ashland University, Ferris State University, The University of Findlay, Gannon University, Grand Valley State University, Hillsdale College, Lake Superior State University, Mercyhurst College, Michigan Technological University, Northern Michigan University, Northwood University, Saginaw Valley State University and Wayne State University.

The GLIAC entered a new era in 1995-96. Previously its members were all institutions located in the state of Michigan. On December 13, 1994, membership was offered to three institutions located in Ohio and Pennsylvania. The expansion members were Ashland University (Ashland, Ohio), Gannon University (Erie, Pa.) and Mercyhurst College (Erie, Pa.). All three began their conference membership July 1, 1995. The University of Findlay (Ohio) was later added to the conference in July of 1997.

All 13 member institutions compete in men's and women's basketball. The GLIAC has crowned 34 champions in men's basketball since 1972-73, and 27 in women's basketball since 1974-75. The 1990-91 season marked the conference's first ever post-season basketball tournament. This season, the men's and women's GLIAC tournament will be held February 27-March 2 at the DeltaPlex in Grand Rapids, Mich. The championship contest is slated for Saturday, March 2. More information on the conference tournament can be obtained at the tournament website. The address is: www.gliac-bball.org

Overall the GLIAC conducts championships in 19 sports, nine for men and 10 for women. Men's championship sports are baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track and outdoor track. Women's championship sports include basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, indoor track, outdoor track and volleyball.

The 2001-02 campaign will mark the sixth season of divisional basketball play. The North Division includes Ferris State, Grand Valley State, Lake Superior State, Michigan Tech, Northern Michigan, Northwood and Saginaw Valley State. The South Division includes Ashland, Findlay, Gannon, Hillsdale, Mercyhurst and Wayne State.

Eight teams qualify for the GLIAC Tournament, with the North and South Division champions receiving automatic bids and the top two seeds. The six remaining teams are chosen and seeded based on winning percentage in conference games. The winner of the tournament receives an automatic bid into the NCAA Division II National Tournament.

Bulldog Player Wins Award

Ferris State University senior Tianna Kirkland was named the 2000-01 Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) Player of the Year.

TIANNA KIRKLAND
GLIAC
Player of the Year

Freshman guard Tiffany Grubaugh of Wayne State University was chosen Freshman of the Year while Coach of the Year honors went to Michigan Tech University's Darla Olson. All three awards were selected by the GLIAC women's basketball coaches in conjunction with all-conference balloting.

A Flint, Mich., native and Kearsley High School graduate, Kirkland led the conference in rebounding (10.1 rpg) and registered a conference-leading 13 double-double performances (points and rebounds) during the 2000-01 campaign. Kirkland was also picked as a first-team All-GLIAC North Division honoree and earned GLIAC North Division All-Defensive Team recognition.

A second-team 1999-2000 All-GLIAC North Division selection, Kirkland led Ferris State to a 16-11 mark and a third place finish in the GLIAC's North Division (11-7).
