

Camp Staff

Tracey Dorow is completing her 12th season as head women's basketball coach. Her many accomplishments include nine consecutive GLIAC Tournament bids and three NCAA Division II National Tournament appearances. She currently stands as Ferris State University's women's basketball coach with the all-time most wins. Under Dorow's leadership, the Lady Bulldogs have ranked among the nation's top Division II academic programs, including the highest GPA in 1999-2000 and the second highest in 2002-2003.

Kurt Westendorp is completing his first season as the assistant women's basketball coach with the Bulldogs. Coach Kurt will serve as the camp director and has a wide range of experience working and directing summer camps.

From 2007-2010 Coach Kurt served as the assistant coach at Albion College and directed their summer shootouts. Coach Kurt was the varsity girls basketball coach at New Buffalo High School from 2005-2007 and organized and directed their summer camps. While an undergraduate student at Valparaiso University he spent his summer traveling and working camps at such places as The University of Notre Dame, Stanford University, and Michigan State University.

Coach Kurt is looking forward to providing an environment at the Bulldog camps this summer where teams and individuals can work on their game and have a lot of fun while doing it!!

Shootout Description:

Team Shootouts provide high school players and coaches with vital off-season competition and playing experience. The shootouts are designed to allow for team-building while facing a variety of opponents in a fast-paced environment of short games and tournament style play. Teams are guaranteed a minimum of 4 games per shootout with officials provided. Each team will be additionally allotted optional time throughout the day for personalized instruction with Ferris coaching staff and players. Time will also be allotted during the day so you have time to engage your team in team building activities.

Shootout dates are June 27 or June 28
All High School Teams

Academy Description:

Players looking to improve their game this summer will benefit greatly from attending the Bulldog Basketball Academy. This 3 day 2 night camp is designed to help players learn from the Ferris coaching staff and team what it takes for them to take their game to the next level. Whether that level is to make your Varsity team, your JV team, or to improve to beat your younger brother or sister on the driveway, the Bulldog Basketball Academy is the place to get better!

Academy dates are June 29 - July 1st
Grades 5-12
