Greater Michigan MSCA Student Chapter at Ferris State University is MCAA's 2008 Student Chapter of the Year

The Mechanical Contractors Association of America, Inc. (MCAA) presented its 2008 Student Chapter of the Year Award to the Greater Michigan MSCA Student Chapter in March, 2009 during the Awards of Excellence Breakfast at the association's annual convention in Scottsdale, Arizona. MCAA's Career Development Committee chose the winner based on several criteria, the most important how well the chapter promotes student interest in our industry and the career opportunities our industry offers.

Chapter President Jamie Ambeau (Big Rapids, MI) accepted the award on behalf of the chapter.

The Mechanical Contractors Association of America, Inc. (MCAA) serves the unique needs of approximately 2,500 firms involved in heating, air conditioning, refrigeration, plumbing, piping, and mechanical service. This is accomplished through furnishing its members with high-quality educational materials and programs to help them attain the highest level of managerial and technical expertise.

MCAA includes the Mechanical Service Contractors of America, the Plumbing Contractors of America, the Manufacturer/Supplier Council, the Mechanical Contracting Education and Research Foundation and the National Certified Pipe Welding Bureau.
