

A Seat at the Table

August 2018

- ✓
- ✓ The Office of Multicultural Student Services (OMSS) will host an Open House, August 29, 2018, from 12:00-3:00pm, in FLITE 159. Light refreshments will be provided.
- ✓ This has been a good year for the Jim Crow Museum. There are several YouTube videos produced by Vice News (HBO) about the museum, they total more than 10 million views. The museum also received a collection of photographs produced by David Levinthal. The final assessed value was more than $2.2 million. And, the museum is in line to receive another significant donation.
- ✓ Change happens. Each year new people become a part of the Ferris community, and some of our friends leave. This year we are losing three diversity champions—Kevin Carmody, Title IX Coordinator; Kendree Berg, LGBTQ+ Coordinator; and, William Sartore, Education Abroad Coordinator. We are sad that they are leaving, but we are thankful for our time together, and comforted by the knowledge that they will do good work in their new homes.
