Who may be nominated? Any team of people who worked together to fulfill a specific goal or mission between January 1, 2020, and December 31, 2020, is eligible for the Distinguished Team Award. A team comprised of individuals from multiple disciplines/departments may have met to achieve or work towards its unique task on a continuing, temporary, or less-than-daily basis. Some examples of these are ad hoc committees or special project teams. Teams may include full-time or part-time members of the Ferris community. In addition, teams may include members who were recipients of the Distinguished Staff Award or the Distinguished Faculty Award. Excluded are teams who have won this award previously.

Who may nominate? Any full-time or part-time employee may nominate except the supervisor or the chair of the team being nominated. Nominators may make only one team nomination per year. Students may not nominate.
