

Ferris State University Policy Review Process

Policy Review Process

University policies <https://www.ferris.edu/HTMLS/staff/policies/> will be reviewed every five years by the President's Council.

Process

Each Vice President shall bring their divisional-based policies to the President's Council when needed and/or during designated meetings where reviews will take place.

Any time operational changes occur that impact the content of the policy, the responsible Vice President or designee must process any necessary revisions in conformance with University procedures.
