

COMPETENCY IMPLEMENTATION PLAN (CIP)

PROBLEM SOLVING

Date:

Course prefix, number, and title:

Briefly describe how this course fulfills the operational definition of the Problem Solving core competency at Ferris State University:

PRB1: Framing questions – Students will formulate creative and informed questions in order to investigate problems and develop solutions.
How will this be implemented in class?	How will achievement be evaluated?
PRB2: Gathering evidence – Students will discover and analyze information in order to determine its validity for application to a problem.
How will this be implemented in class?	How will achievement be evaluated?

PRB3: Using technology – Students will use technology in order to document processes and communicate findings.

How will this be implemented in class?

How will achievement be evaluated?

PRB4: Critical thinking – Students will demonstrate critical thinking in order to identify, interpret, and resolve problems.

How will this be implemented in class?

How will achievement be evaluated?