PROGRAM SCHEDULE (Live and via Zoom)

- 10:00 AM Welcome, Founder's Room
- 10:10-11:30 AM 2022 Student Research Fellows Podium Presentations, Founder's Room
2022 Student Research Fellows will present for 7 minutes each followed by a 3 minute Q&A
- 11:30-11:35 AM Keynote Introduction by Dr. Robert Fleischman, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Founder's Room
- 11:35 AM-12:15 PM Keynote Address: "Kinetic Thinking", Dr. Joseph Pistrui, Founder's Room
(’83, BS in Marketing & 2021 FSU Distinguished Alumni Award Recipient)
- Dr. Pistrui has a long-standing international academic career in the fields of entrepreneurship, strategy, innovation, and family business having worked for academic institutions such as IE Business School and IE University, Duke Corporate Education, London School of Economics and Political Science, Bocconi University, IESE Business School and Corvinus University of Budapest. Joseph Pistrui has also served as a member of the Leeds University Business School International Advisory Board since 2014.*
- In 2018 Joseph co-founded Kinetic Thinking, a learning and development framework to provide educational experiences for managers to develop as kinetic thinkers — to move intentionally among four entrepreneurial styles of thinking when facing new situations— and thus to facilitate pathways for personal and professional development. Based on collaborative work the Kinetic Styles Framework©, bespoke models, and assessment tools have been developed to help organizations build entrepreneurial thinking, managing and leading capabilities. Previous to his academic endeavors, Joseph enjoyed a range of leadership positions over a fifteen-year sales and marketing management career in the fast-moving consumer goods sector in the United States, mostly with Bristol-Myers Squibb.*
- 12:15- 1:00 PM FSU Student Poster Session and Reception, Ballroom B
Students from across the campus community will share their work in an open poster session
