

Ferris State University Student Life Committee 2018-2019 AY Final Report

Mission Statement

The responsibility of the Student Life Committee is to define and recommend to the Academic Senate institutional policy as it affects students, including but not limited to the following areas: housing, health services, advising and counseling, student conduct and judicial services, financial aid, and publications.

The Committee has a primary responsibility to bring before the Senate policy matters in the area of student life. It will be responsible for defining, recommending, and periodically reviewing policy in the realm of student life in order to provide additional direction to those charged with the administration of institutional policy.

The committee will receive recommendations and opinions from other established bodies and committee on student life issues.

Academic Year Activity

The committee met three times during the academic year.

Cami Sanderson volunteered as the chair of the committee during the first meeting of the year. Unfortunately, Cami went on a leave of absence and did not return.

Jennifer Johnson and Sue Waters agreed to temporarily fulfill co-chair positions for the remainder of the year.

Co-chairs scheduled monthly meetings during the Spring semester. Participation by committee membership was limited to approximately four members.

Committee attempted to clarify committee membership, and was unsuccessful.
