Details about your academic history and current standing (GPA/Earned credits) can be found in MyFSU under "MyRecords"

Your Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Appeal must include ALL of the following for consideration:

1. Completed Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Appeal Form
2. A well-written, typed statement using your own words that explains:
 - The circumstances that prevented you from maintaining satisfactory progress.
 - Examples include: Serious illness or injury of the student, death of a relative, or other special situations.
 - What has changed? {Describe how your situation has changed.}
 - A clear plan of action for how you will improve your academic progress.
 - What corrective measures have you taken, or will you take to achieve and maintain satisfactory academic progress?
 - Resources you intend to use, and how you will use them, to assist you in becoming academically successful.
 - Examples: Tutoring, advisor meetings, utilizing the Library and its resources
3. Documentation to support your written statement such as proof of a doctor visit, obituary, other professional or 3rd party statements.
4. Reason for denial of financial aid:
 - a) If you checked A or B above: Submit a SAP Academic Evaluation Form, completed by your advisor.
 - b) If you checked C above: Submit a SAP Program Audit Form, completed by your advisor.

By signing this form, I certify that all of the above information is complete and correct. In addition, I acknowledge my responsibility to follow through with the corrective actions promised in #2 above, in order to improve my future academic performance. Electronic and/or typed signatures are NOT acceptable.

Tips for Writing a Successful FASAP Appeal Statement

A well-written FASAP appeal statement should be typed, using your own words to explain:

What happened and what has changed:

- Why were you unable to maintain satisfactory progress?
- What corrective measures have you taken or will you take to achieve and maintain satisfactory academic progress?

Admit the problem:

Take a hard look at your situation to determine what has kept you from making satisfactory academic progress. Perhaps you need help with time management or study skills. Admit the problem and explain how you will get that help.

- Note: Lack of awareness of withdrawal policies, requirements for satisfactory academic progress or unpreparedness for college coursework will not be accepted as reasons for the purpose of an appeal.

Attach any relevant supporting documentation:

This may include a doctor's statement, copy of hospital/urgent care/physician's bill, obituary, funeral notice or death certificate.

Valid reasons for an appeal include (but are not limited to):

- medical emergencies
- severe health issues
- severe personal or family problems
- financial or personal catastrophe
- return for a second degree or certificate
