Please check the statements below indicating that you have read, understand and agree to them:

Placement is at the discretion of the Field Placement Office.

Students may not arrange their own placements.

Student teaching is a 15-week internship designed to meet or exceed state requirements. Start and end dates will be established prior to the start of placement. Start and end dates vary student to student and may be different from the start and end of the FSU semester.

Students are required to pass all required MTTC tests prior to the start of student teaching.

Students may not be placed in schools where they have relatives working or attending.

Students may not be placed in districts where they have family members working in administrative positions or serving on the school board.
