About the

FSU • WEST CENTRAL SUMMER BAND

The FSU • West Central Summer Band is open to all area residents, high school age and older, in and near Big Rapids with experience playing a brass, percussion or woodwind instrument in a concert band setting.

Sponsored by Ferris State University, the Summer Band is the seasonal version of FSU's West Central Concert Band. There is no fee required for the public to play in the Summer Band. For students able to meet all rehearsals and concerts, it is possible to take Summer Band for credit through Ferris State University as Music 160.

The FSU • West Central Summer Band meets every summer for 6 weeks in June and July. The band rehearses on Monday evenings from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. at the Music Center on the campus of Ferris State University, from June 2 through July 7. Concerts are presented each following Thursday and are free and open to the public.

So for all of you musicians out there, young and old – even if you “haven’t had your horn out of the case for a while” – grab your horn, get on the bandwagon, and help fill our summer skies with the sweet sounds of music! Please contact directors Scott Cohen (231) 591-2484 or Daniel Cronk (231) 591-2537 to get signed up!
