A joyous song

Lacrymosa(from Requiem).....Mozart That day of tears and mourning, when from the ashes shall arise, all humanity to be judged.
Spare us by your mercy, Lord, gentle Lord Jesus,
grant them eternal rest. Amen

Set Me as a Seal upon Thine Heart.....Schmidt

WaldesnachtBrahms Wondrously cool woodland night, whom I greet a thousand times: after the uproarious tumult of the world, o how sweet is your rustling!
Dreamily I nestle my weary limbs in your tender moss, and it seems to me as if once more I were free from all my insane anguish.

Distant fluting song, emerge and stir a wide yearning, with thoughts of the beloved, ah! beguile the resented distance!
Let the woodland night lull me, still every pain,
and a blissful satisfaction permit me to drink in with its fragrances.

Feller from Fortune (from 5 Songs of the Newfoundland Outports).....arr. Somers
