COMPUTER REQUIREMENTS

As an online program, it is important for graduate students to have supportive technology. Student's technical requirements include reliable and high-speed internet access. Because computer hardware requirements change, students should have minimum system requirements at their entry into the program. Minimum software requirements include Microsoft Word for creation of scholarly papers, Microsoft PowerPoint for creation of scholarly presentations, and Adobe Acrobat Reader to open, read, and print scholarly articles. Please note the Technology Standards: <https://www.ferris.edu/it/itstandards.htm>

Students must register for the course through Ferris to gain access to the online course site and have a valid Ferris State ID access and password. Ferris State University uses the Canvas platform to provide the online course infrastructure. It is strongly recommended that students are familiar with basic computing skills.

Students will need a computer with a built-in or external microphone and camera for live virtual meetings and for creating audio presentations to upload online. This supportive technology will help the graduate student complete the online course requirements.

CONDITIONAL ADMISSION

Conditional Admission may be granted in cases where selected admission criteria have not been demonstrated. Continued admission will be conditional based on the student's meeting the following requirements in the MSN program.

If a student is admitted with:

- a. a GPA of less than 3.00, the student must successfully complete 9 semester hours of graduate work with a 3.0 GPA to qualify for regular admission
- b. TOEFL scores between 500-549, the student must enroll in and successfully complete recommended ESL courses or may retake the TOEFL exam

Special enrollment may be permitted for students who are not planning to become candidates for a graduate degree in the MSN program. Special enrollment will be permitted only on a semester-by- semester basis and is subject to program approval.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Materials prepared by students relating to course assignments must conform to ethical standards of confidentiality and the client's right to privacy.

Students and faculty may not take any patient records, notes, or any identifying data out of a clinical agency on paper [must be shredded] or electronically.

In addition, information regarding student records is covered by the Privacy Act of 1974.

Therefore, student files are private, and most information may not be released without consent of the student.

COURSE MATERIAL

Each nursing course has course materials and an effort is made to provide free access texts as much as possible to reduce costs for students. However, there are some courses that require texts that are available through the FSU bookstore. Information about ordering course materials is provided when the student registers.

CREDIT HOUR DEFINITION

Students will participate in interactive online learning for the equivalent of 50 minutes of learning activities per credit hour per week. There are additional expectations of study time of approximately 3-4 hours a week for each credit hour for optimal success. However, based on the student's background and experience, the actual time in learning activities may vary. Additionally, the capstone courses require a core practicum and an advanced specialty role practicum (120 hours each). These practicum experiences are intended to prepare the graduate student adequately for role entry and certification.

CURRICULUM SEQUENCE

The sequencing of courses in the MSN curriculum is intentional to maximize skills and knowledge development. Some courses have co- or pre-requisites. Therefore, deviation from the identified course sequence may result in difficulty progressing or meeting graduation requirements. Please check with your nursing advisor before omitting, substituting, or delaying any course.

Plagiarism is “the taking of ideas, writings, etc. from another and passing them off as one’s own”. This practice is not acceptable to the University, the College, the Nursing programs, or to the instructors. In an academic setting, this is equivalent to grand larceny. Serious consequences may result and can include failure in the project or in the class, dismissal from the program, and/or dismissal from the University.

POLICY FOR STUDENT COMPLAINT

The Code of Student Community Standards states, “each Ferris State University student has a right to initiate a complaint that may bring about an investigation and/or disciplinary action involving another member of the University academic community.” Ferris State University is committed to assuring a supportive process that invites student feedback in a manner that promotes a positive learning environment. It is important however that students follow established policies and procedures to resolve their complaints. When a student has an issue with a grade, internship or other student/faculty issue, it is the responsibility of the student to use a progressive procedure to resolve the issue. Please read the official “Student Complaint Policy: located at:

https://www.ferris.edu/HTMLS/administration/academicaffairs/Forms_Policies/Documents/Policy_Letters/AA-Student-Complaints.pdf

This policy provides a systematic means of resolving student/faculty issues. It is important that you understand and follow this policy should such a situation occur.

 - A grade of a less than a “C” is earned in a graduate course.
 - The overall GPA drops below 3.0.
2. Any course in which a grade of less than a 2.0 or “C” is earned will not count towards graduation and must be repeated.
3. Only one course may be repeated one time in the MSN program. There may be no more than two withdrawals from courses for non-medical reasons.
4. Students may be academically dismissed from the MSN program if any of the following conditions occur:
 - A grade of 2.0 or less is earned in a second graduate course.

- A grade of 2.0 or less is earned in the second attempt of the same graduate course.
 - The student is unable to raise the overall GPA to 3.0 or higher after two semesters.
5. Students who do not complete the program within the 5-year time frame allowed may be dismissed from the program, unless an extension has been permitted. Extensions will only be allowed if the student is making consistent, and satisfactory progress in the program as evidenced by a GPA of 3.0 or higher and no more than 2 course withdrawals.
 6. Students who are dismissed from the program are not eligible for re- entry into the program.
 7. Students with extenuating circumstances may appeal their dismissal from the program, as outlined in the Academic Dismissal Policy at <https://www.ferris.edu/HTMLS/administration/academicaffairs/graduateprograms/documents/GraduateProbationDismissalPolicyApprovedBySenateApril2016forWeb.pdf>

PRACTICUM REQUIREMENTS

There is a total of 270 hours of required practicum experiences within the program. The first experience is in NURS 551 and consists of 30 hours of community practicum time. In the final capstone courses, all graduate students will complete two, 120 hour supervised practicum experiences. These practicum experiences will build on knowledge attained in the core and specialty courses. Students will create proposals in NURS 711 and 712 for their project and role immersion and will identify preceptors to guide and supervise the proposed experiences. Preceptors will need to be prepared at the master's level or higher in the nursing discipline and have the requisite experience to guide the student effectively. Students will then implement their proposals in NURS 791 and 792. Students may complete these experiences in their current place of employment, but it should not be on their current unit or with a current supervisor. Students may elect to complete the practicums in a place other than their current place of employment. (Students should be aware there may be a minor fee (usually in the area of $100.00 associated with completing the practicum at an outside facility depending on that agency/organization's requirements.) Students should be prepared to dedicate the number of hours required to complete the practicum experiences during the semester taken. Students in the informatics track may be given special consideration due to limited numbers of preceptors in certain regions.

If students are unable to find a site or preceptor, assistance will be provided to secure a location and preceptor. However, students should be aware that this may not be in the location desired so travel could be required to the site.

TRANSFER CREDIT

A student can transfer into the MSN program 30% of the total credits (no more than 11 credits in a 37-credit program) from an accredited university. The student must formally request to have the courses considered for transfer credit by approaching the MSN Program Coordinator with a specific request. Each course syllabus must be submitted for review to the MSN Program Coordinator, who will then decide whether the course is transferable based on its equivalency in content, structure, and hours. Once an equivalent course has been taken, the student will lose the opportunity to receive transfer credits for that course. Therefore, it is advised that students do not take courses that are being considered for transfer credit until final determination of equivalency.

WRITING STYLE REQUIREMENT

The current edition of the American Psychological Association Manual is the accepted departmental format for any papers submitted in any nursing course.
