

QUALIFICATION POLICY for Radiography 2023-2024

Each of our academic programs have specific classes, grades, and GPA requirement which a student must meet to apply for the clinical phase of the program. Below are the policies for all programs. Please note your program requirements.

- All qualifying Math & Science courses must be met in two attempts. Any transfer courses equivalent to the FSU requirement is counted as an attempt.
- Unsuccessful attempts include not meeting the grade requirement listed below, receiving a “W” (withdrawal), or a grade of “I” that is not converted to the required grade or higher by the end of the next semester.
- Prerequisite courses are not tied to the grade or attempt requirement.
- Qualified students must apply each February 1st – 15th to be considered as an applicant for the program. If not accepted to the program, you must apply each year.
- Admissions is based on the qualification semester (successful completion of the qualifiers - listed below). However, in the case of a tie breaker, consideration will be placed on the number of passed FSU credits and GPA. Your program of study must be declared prior to or during your qualifying semester.
