Blackboard Grade Center Training - Tuesday, February 19, 2019 - Please Read!

Please review the offerings below. If you are interested in attending the Blackboard Grade Center training or need a 1:1 Blackboard Technology or Grade Center session with the trainer, please register by Monday, February 18, 2019. This is an important training session for those who have never entered in student grades. We strongly encourage new faculty members to attend.

To register, please contact:

Blackboard Grade Center Training: FSU @ Grand Rapids

Date: Tuesday, February 19, 2019

Time: 6:00 pm – 7:30 pm

GRCC Room: ATC 176 Computer Lab (Applied Technology Building – First Floor)

Facilitator: Jackie Hughes

This is an in-depth workshop on all the components of the Grade Center. Participants will learn how to create, configure, and manage the grade center columns, weighted grades, grading schemas, grading periods, and categories. We will also explore color codes and smart views. This workshop is most useful when the participant has a Blackboard course with students enrolled. Please bring a copy of your syllabus.

RSVP for Blackboard Grade Center training by phone at (231) 591-2802 or by Email at eLearning@ferris.edu.

One-on-One Blackboard Technology or Grade Center Assistance: FSU @ Grand Rapids

Dates: Tuesday, February 19, 2019

Times: 1:00 pm – 4:00 pm

GRCC Room: ATC WorkSpace 1 (Ferris Office - Applied Technology Building – First Floor)

Facilitator: Jackie Hughes

If you would like to meet to discuss your particular questions about anything related to Blackboard or Grade Center, feel free to schedule a time segment anytime between 1:00 pm and 4:00 pm.

RSVP for your one-on-one time slot by phone at (231) 591-2802 or by Email at eLearning@ferris.edu.

A Little Room With a Big Purpose:

The History, Work, and Vision of the Jim Crow Museum

Presented by: Dr. David Pilgrim, Founder and Director of the

Jim Crow Museum, Ferris State University

6:30p.m.

Q&A, Reception and Gallery Tour

Dr. Pilgrim will speak about his journey with the Jim Crow Museum, the nation’s largest publicly accessible collection of racist artifacts. Located on the campus of Ferris State University, the collection includes more than 13,000 objects—and is growing weekly. Scholars and civil rights activists from around the world have visited the museum to learn more about race, race relations, and racism.

Pilgrim’s talk and the reception are hosted by the Fine Art Gallery at Ferris State University and are part of the: Hateful Things and More traveling exhibition viewable through February 23. The traveling exhibit furthers the museum’s mission of stimulating the scholarly examination of historical and contemporary expressions of racism, as well as promoting racial understanding and healing. The Hateful Things and More exhibition also includes a small selection of the photographs from two recent donations to the Jim Crow Museum: David Levinthal’s Blackface series and Bruce Davidson’s iconic civil rights images.

Address: University Center Art Gallery, Ferris State University, 805 Campus Drive, UCB 205, Big Rapids, MI 49307. Anyone needing assistance to attend this event can contact Carrie Weiss at 231.591.2536 prior to the event.

Summer and Fall book requests 2019

Please distribute to all faculty.

Summer and Fall Book Information

Dear Faculty,

While it may seem early, it is time to think about Summer and Fall 2019 coursebook orders. These terms have been created in FacultyEnlight, and we are beginning to add information that we have already received. We are requesting you take a few minutes to submit your textbook requests as students are now registering for Summer courses, and will begin registering for Fall March 25th, and need to know what materials they will need for their courses. Thank you!

If you have any questions, please contact the bookstore using the information below:
