Ferris/Online Has a New Look

Check it out! The www.ferris.edu/online website has been redesigned and is now geared toward current and future students in both online courses and online programs at Ferris. A lot of information that was previously located under the online tab in the student section of MyFSU was moved and re-organized in a way that we hope will be more meaningful for students!
