Ferris State University Releases Academic Honors List

BIG RAPIDS, Mich. – University officials have announced that more than 1,631 students received Academic Honors for the semester that ended in August 2013 at Ferris State University and Kendall College of Art and Design.

To be eligible for Academic Honors, undergraduate students must have accumulated at least a 3.5 GPA in no fewer than 12 credit hours of coursework at the 100 level or higher during the given semester, while part-time students must have accumulated at least 12 credit hours of graded coursework at the 100 level or higher with a 3.5 semester GPA and a 3.3 cumulative GPA.

For a complete listing of students receiving Academic Honors, visit <http://www.ferris.edu/deans-list>. The listing is organized by state in zip code order. Ferris has begun posting its Academic Honors listings on the News Services website to save resources, as well as to make the listings more easily accessible.

Ferris State University is a four-year public university with campuses in Big Rapids, Grand Rapids and satellite campuses across the state. Ferris offers more than 180 educational programs, including doctoral, master's, bachelor's and associate degrees, through eight academic colleges: Arts and Sciences, Business, Education and Human Services, Engineering Technology, Health Professions, Kendall College of Art and Design, Michigan College of Optometry and Pharmacy. Founded in 1884 by educator, Michigan Gov. and United States Sen. Woodbridge N. Ferris, the university's mission is to be a national leader in career-oriented, technological and professional education.
