- Working with Dr. Marohn and his scribe was a great experience. They make a great team. There was occasional miscommunication with the rest of the staff about things such as scheduling, but that didn't seem to affect my experience too much. Overall, it is a great rotation site and learning environment.

- I appreciated the exposure to many different conditions. The clinic housed many specialties so with the short time I spent there I saw plenty of variety. The clinic ran very quickly, so at times I felt a bit in the way, and with only being there one day per week, I never felt like I was really in the swing of things. That being said, the whole support staff was very accommodating and patient with the slowdowns I would occasionally create. They were also all very helpful when I would ask for assistance. I enjoyed my time at GLEC.
