

Guyana 2010

“For my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the sight of all people.” ~ Luke 2:30-31

Arriving in Guyana

Most of the men in Guyana work in the sugar cane fields

Guyana is part of the Caribbean

Transportation for the week

Drivers in Guyana honk their horns excessively at cars, bikers, cattle, and other stray animals along the streets.

Guyana In General

Our home for the week in Nigg

We stayed with Andy and Kathleen – this is their house in Bath

Our Clinic in Hamshire

Guyanese Helpers

Clinic Setup

9 exam stations
were set up in the church

Brian in the dispensary on the first day

Patients waited in the HOT Guyana sun to get their eye exams

The First Station

Distance Visual Acuity

Case History and Dilation

Angela taking case histories and near VAs

Kristin dilating
the patients

The Exam

Lyndsay doing retinoscopy on her patient

Whitney doing direct ophthalmoscopy

Andrew using the BIO

Consulting with the Patients

Brother Andy
discussing glaucoma
with his patient

Laura reviewing her patient's history
before beginning the exam

Some patients required special testing

Angela checking
blood pressure

Jordan checking intraocular pressure with the tonopen

Dispensary

Laura and Steve helping patients
pick out glasses

We gave exams, glasses, and eye drops to over 1,100 people in Guyana

Evangelism Station

The main religions in Guyana are Islam, Hinduism, and Christianity

Randy gave believer bracelets to young believers

165 people pray to follow Christ!!!

Brother Andy was our host and helped with just about EVERYTHING

Dr. Dave was our clinic leader

Lyonel was the pastor of the church where we held clinic

Randy was our spiritual leader PJ ran the dispensary all week

Steve, Joe, and Chris modeling glasses to show the Guyanese how “stylish” big frames are

Some of Our Favorite Patients

We Formed Friendships With Many of the Guyanese

Relaxing after a long working day

Our days began at 6:00 am and ended around 8:00 pm

The donkey next door and the Muslims calls woke us at all hours of the night

Guyanese Market

Whitney and Kathleen at the market

$1 USA = $200 Guyanese

Kaieteur Falls

The tallest single drop waterfall in the world

This tiny poisonous frog lives in the rubber plant and can put you in a coma!

Walking through the jungle

Sitting in the jaguar cave

Chris, Andrew, and Jordan washing their faces in the waterfall to “look 10 years younger”

Baganara Resort

Relaxing After a Long Week

JFK Airport

Making the most of our 30 hour stay in the airport because of weather delays
