They also shared the updated Strategic Planning webpage and the online mechanisms for the campus community to comment on the Vision, Mission and Core values.

Strategic Planning: Reducing "Silo" Thinking

As part of the ongoing work of the Strategic Planning Steering Committee, Cindy Horn and Tony Baker, co-chairs of the Maximizing Institutional Effectiveness sub-committee, enlisted the SPARC members input to fill out a worksheet with some solutions for minimizing "silos". As part of this topic, Sarah Hinkley shared an update on the work she is doing with a group of faculty in the health professions colleges called InterProfessional Education (IPE) that could contribute to reducing silos. The group would like to extend this concept across the University.

Campus Project/Construction Update
